

Environmental asbestos

Contents of the course - Syllabus

I. Goal

Intervene on a site that might contain asbestos, environmental asbestos type

II. Persons concerned

All personnel (operator) working on the site at risk (asbestos)

Number of participants: 15 to 20 participants

III. Prerequisites

No medical restrictions

IV. Theoretical content

This list shows the minimum content to be taught, other elements can be added by the applicant.

- ✓ Present the regulations applicable in New Caledonia
- ✓ Quickly present the different types of asbestos
- ✓ Detail the characteristics of environmental asbestos
- ✓ List and identify the principle material containing asbestos in a natural state
- ✓ List and explain the different pathologies caused by asbestos and medical control
- ✓ List activities that could set free asbestos fibres
- ✓ List and explain preventive measures (also sampling methods), common and individual protective measures when dealing with material containing asbestos and management of dust
- ✓ Indicate the most important directives (environmental asbestos prevention plan)

The minimum duration for the theoretical part is 2h.

V. Practical part

No practical part

VI. Total duration

The total duration of the "Environmental Asbestos" course is 2h minimum.

VII. Evaluation

At the end of the practical part the acquired knowledge will be tested and evaluated in a MCT OU MCQ with 10 questions. The participant needs 80% of correct answers to pass successfully.

VIII. Validity & Recycling

The training is valid for 2 years.

No recycling content